ARBITRATION AGREEMENT

Binding Arbitration. You and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. (the "Bank"), including the Bank’s assignees, agents, employees, officers, directors, shareholders, parent companies, subsidiaries, affiliates, predecessors and successors, agree that if a Dispute (as defined below) arises between you and the Bank, upon demand by either you or the Bank, the Dispute shall be resolved by the following arbitration process. However, the Bank shall not initiate an arbitration to collect a consumer debt, but reserves the right to arbitrate all other disputes with its consumer customers. A “Dispute” is any unresolved disagreement between you and the Bank. It includes any disagreement relating in any way to your Credit Card Account (“Account”) or related services. It includes claims based on broken promises or contracts, torts, or other wrongful actions. It also includes statutory, common law and equitable claims. A Dispute also includes any disagreements about the meaning or application of this Arbitration Agreement. This Arbitration Agreement shall survive the payment or closure of your Account. You understand and agree that you and the Bank are waiving the right to a jury trial or trial before a judge in a public court. As the sole exception to this Arbitration Agreement, you and the Bank retain the right to pursue in small claims court any Dispute that is within that court's jurisdiction. If either you or the Bank fails to submit to binding arbitration following lawful demand, the party so failing bears all costs and expenses incurred by the other in compelling arbitration.

Arbitration Procedure; Severability. Either you or the Bank may submit a Dispute to binding arbitration at any time notwithstanding that a lawsuit or other proceeding has been previously commenced. Neither you nor the Bank shall be entitled to join or consolidate disputes by or against others in any arbitration, or to include in any arbitration any dispute as a representative or member of a class, or to act in a private attorney general capacity. Each arbitration, including the selection of the arbitrator(s) shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA), or such other administrator as you and the Bank may mutually agree to (the AAA or such other mutually agreeable administrator to be referred to hereinafter as the “Arbitration Administrator”), according to the Commercial Arbitration Rules and the Supplemental Procedures for Consumer Related Disputes (“AAA Rules”). To the extent that there is any variance between the AAA Rules and this Arbitration Agreement, this Arbitration Agreement shall control. Arbitrator(s) must be members of the state bar where the arbitration is held, with expertise in the substantive laws applicable to the subject matter of the Dispute. No arbitrator or other party to an arbitration proceeding may disclose the existence, content or results thereof, except for disclosures of information by a party required in the ordinary course of its business or by applicable law or regulation. You and the Bank (the "Parties") agree that in this relationship: (1) The Parties are participating in transactions involving interstate commerce; and (2) This Arbitration Agreement and any resulting arbitration are governed by the provisions of the Federal Arbitration Act (Title 9 of the United States Code), and, to the extent any provision of that Act is inapplicable, unenforceable or invalid, the laws of the state of South Dakota. If any of the provisions of this Arbitration Agreement dealing with class action, class arbitration, private attorney general action, other representative action, joinder, or consolidation is found to be illegal or unenforceable, that invalid provision shall not be severable and this entire Arbitration Agreement shall be unenforceable.

Rights Preserved. This Arbitration Agreement does not prohibit the Parties from exercising any lawful rights or using other available remedies to preserve, foreclose or obtain possession of real or personal property; exercise self-help remedies, including setoff and repossession rights; or obtain provisional or ancillary remedies such as injunctive relief, attachment, garnishment or the appointment of a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction. Any statute of limitations applicable to any Dispute applies to any arbitration between the Parties. The provisions of this Arbitration Agreement shall survive termination, amendment or expiration of the Account or any other relationship between you and the Bank.

Fees and Expenses of Arbitration. Arbitration fees shall be determined by the rules or procedures of the Arbitration Administrator, unless limited by applicable law. Please check with the Arbitration Administrator to determine the fees applicable to any arbitration you may file. If the applicable law of the state in which you opened your Account limits the amount of fees and expenses to be paid by you, then no allocation of fees and expenses to you shall exceed this limitation. Unless inconsistent with applicable law, each of us shall bear the expense of our own attorney, expert and witness fees, regardless of which of us prevails in the arbitration.

Military Lending Act: The Arbitration Agreement does not apply to you if you are covered by the Military Lending Act nor do any provisions that waive any right to legal recourse under any state or federal law to the extent required by the Military Lending Act. Please see The Military Lending Act Notice in the Agreement for more information.

OVERVIEW OF ACCOUNT. Your Account may be divided into two or more balances. These balances may also be referred to as subaccounts. Different terms may apply to different balances.

USING YOUR ACCOUNT. You may use your Account for purchases. Purchases will be part of the regular balance unless a Sales Slip shows that special terms apply. If special terms apply, the purchase will be part of a special terms balance. Special terms are described later in this Agreement (see Special Terms section).

You promise that you will use your Account only for lawful personal, family or household purposes. In addition, we reserve the right to deny transactions or authorizations from merchants apparently engaging in the Internet gambling business or identifying themselves through the Card transaction record or otherwise as engaged in such business. We are not responsible if anyone does not allow you to use your Account.

PROMISE TO PAY. When you use your Account, or let someone else use it, you promise to pay the total amount of the purchase, as well as any interest, fees or other amounts that you may owe us. We may limit or close your Account, but the terms of this Agreement will apply until you pay the Account in full.

CREDIT LIMIT. We will assign a Credit Limit to your Account. A Credit Limit is the amount of credit we will extend to your Account. Your Credit Limit is provided with your Card and on each of your statements. You promise to use your Account only to the Credit Limit. If you exceed your Credit Limit, we may authorize the transaction without increasing your Credit Limit. If you exceed your Credit Limit, you will remain liable for all amounts payable under this Agreement. We can adjust your Credit Limit at any time.

CREDIT ACCESS DEVICE. We may provide you with a Credit Access Device(s) to access your Account. The related interest and fee terms will be given to you when you receive the Credit Access Device(s).

FEES AND INTEREST
FEES. You agree to pay the following fees. You will find the fee amounts in the Important Terms of Your Credit Card Account. These fees will be charged to your regular balance unless stated otherwise below.

• Late Payment Fee. This fee may be charged when the payment is dishonored the first time or is returned unpaid.

INTEREST RATES. We use daily periodic rates and corresponding APRs to figure interest on balances on your Account. The daily periodic rate is 0.07942%, which is calculated by dividing the APR by 365.

WHEN WE CHARGE INTEREST. Unless stated otherwise below, we begin charging interest on a purchase or interest charge on the date the purchase or interest charge posts to your Account. We begin charging interest on a fee on the first day following the Billing Cycle in which the fee posts to your Account. However, if a late payment fee is posted to your Account in the current Billing Cycle, but is related to a late payment in the prior Billing Cycle, we will begin charging interest on the fee on the first day of the current Billing Cycle.

HOW TO AVOID PAYING INTEREST ON PURCHASES. Unless described differently in the Special Interest Terms section below, you cannot avoid interest on any portion of a purchase balance shown on your current statement that you pay by the Payment Due Date if the balance was zero at the beginning of that Billing Cycle.

HOW WE CALCULATE INTEREST—AVERAGE DAILY BALANCE METHOD (INCLUDING NEW PURCHASES). The total interest charge is the sum of interest charges (excluding deferred interest charges) for each type of balance on your Account (e.g. regular, each special terms balance). We figure the interest charge for each type of balance on your Account by applying the daily periodic rate to the average daily balance ("ADB"). Then, we multiply this amount by the number of days in the Billing Cycle.

Interest charge = daily periodic rate × ADB × number of days in the Billing Cycle.

MINIMUM INTEREST CHARGE. If you are charged interest in a Billing Cycle, the charge will be no less than $1.00.

Payments
MINIMUM PAYMENT DUE. You promise to pay the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date. The Minimum Payment Due is the sum of:

• Any past due amounts; plus
• The payment for Regular Payment Terms (see Regular Payment Terms below); plus
• The payment(s) for any balances with Payment in Full/Equal Payments’ or Custom Payments (see Special Payment Terms below).

You may at any time pay, in whole or in part, the Outstanding Balance without any additional charge for prepayment. If you pay more than the Minimum Payment Due but less than the Outstanding Balance, you are still required to pay the Minimum Payment Due in the next Billing Cycle.

REGULAR PAYMENT TERMS. All balances will have Regular Payment Terms unless a Sales Slip shows that Payment in Full/Equal Payments’ or Custom Payments apply. We combine balances with Regular Payment Terms (the "Combined Balance") to figure the payment for these balances. A new Combined Balance is figured on the first statement closing date after any balance with Regular Payment Terms is established. The Combined Balance does not change unless balances with Regular Payment Terms increase above the current Combined Balance. The payment for balances with Regular Payment Terms will be the greater of:

• $40.00 (or the sum of balances with Regular Payment Terms if it is less than $40.00); or
• 3.5% of the Combined Balance; or
• The sum of interest charges for balances with Regular Payment Terms, fees assessed during the current Billing Cycle, and 1% of the Combined Balance.

PAYMENT INSTRUCTIONS. Follow these instructions when making a payment:

Make your payment in U.S. dollars, but do not send cash.

If you make a payment by mail, please include the Payment Stub with your payment. Use the envelope enclosed with your statement to mail both documents to the Payment Address.

Payments received by 5:00 p.m. local time at the Payment Address will be credited as of the next day.

If you receive a check or a credit card in the mail, you can return the payment as a check transaction. We will begin to process your payment as soon as possible.

If your payment includes a credit card, you must return the credit card to us. We will begin to process your payment as soon as possible.

If you make a payment online, it must be made via our website, which is shown on your statement. You can make a payment online at any time.

If you receive a check or a credit card in the mail, you can return the payment as a check transaction. We will begin to process your payment as soon as possible.

If you make a payment online, it must be made via our website, which is shown on your statement. You can make a payment online at any time.

If you receive a check or a credit card in the mail, you can return the payment as a check transaction. We will begin to process your payment as soon as possible.
IRREGULAR PAYMENTS. We may accept late payments, partial payments or payments that reflect “paid in full” (or other restrictive language), without losing our rights to receive full payment. If you intend to claim to pay your Account in full with an amount less than the Outstanding Balance, payments must be sent to us at Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., P.O. Box 14453, Des Moines, IA 50306. You agree to assist us in our investigation of the matter. If you do this, you will not be held liable for the unauthorized use of your Account.

DEFAULT. Your Account will be in default if any of the following occur:
• You fail to pay the Minimum Payment Due by the Payment Due Date.
• Any payment is dishonored.
• You violate the terms of this Agreement.
• You made an untrue statement on your application.
• You file for bankruptcy.

If this is a joint Account, a default by one of you will be a default by all of you. If your Account is in default, our rights include, but are not limited to, refusing to authorize further transactions, closing your Account, and requiring the immediate payment of the Outstanding Balance. If your Account is in default, you also agree to pay our collection costs, attorney’s fees, and court costs.

GOVERNING LAW. Federal law and the laws of South Dakota govern this Agreement and your Account.

CHANGE OF TERMS. We may change this Agreement at any time. These changes may apply to existing and future balances. We will give you advance written notice of the change(s) and a right to reject the change(s) if required by law. We may require you to close your Account or take other actions if you reject the changes.

ENFORCING THIS AGREEMENT. We may waive or delay enforcing any of your rights without losing them. We may waive or delay enforcing a right against one of you without waiving it as to any other.

SEPARATION OF UNLAWFUL PROVISIONS. If any provision of this Agreement is determined to be unlawful, the rest of the Agreement will stand and the unlawful provision will be deemed amended to conform to law.

INFORMATION SHARING. You authorize us to share your personal and/or Account information with nonaffiliates. Nonaffiliates include Merchants, their affiliates, their service providers, and program sponsors ("Sponsors"). A sponsor is a franchisor, manufacturer, distributor of goods or an association of retail sellers. Sponsors have arrangements with us to promote their products or services through your Account. You may request additional Cards on your Account for others, you understand that we may report Account information in your name as well as in the names of those additional cardholders. If you fail to comply with the terms of the Account as defined in this Agreement, it will be furnished to the credit reporting agencies and it could cause a negative reference on your credit report and the credit reports of any additional cardholders. You have the right to dispute the accuracy of information that we have reported by writing to us at Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., P.O. Box 14517, Des Moines, IA 50306 and describing the specific information that is inaccurate or in dispute and the basis for any dispute with supporting documentation. In the case of information that you believe relates to an identity theft, you will need to provide us with an identity theft report.

ASSIGNMENT. We have the right to assign your Account to another creditor. The other creditor is then entitled to any rights we assign to them. You do not have the right to assign your Account.

SECURITY INTEREST. You grant us a purchase-money security interest under the Uniform Commercial Code in the goods purchased on your Account. We will retain the purchase-money security interest until such goods are paid for in full. You agree to assist us in executing any documents necessary to perfect our security interest.

Special Terms
These terms apply to Special Terms.

SPECIAL TERMS. We may allow you to make purchases at special terms if a Sales Slip shows that special terms apply, then the purchase will be governed by the special terms and the terms of this Agreement. If you default on a purchase, We accept the special terms by making the purchase. A Sales Slip will state the length of the special terms period, if any. Separate purchases with the same special terms may be included in the same special terms balance. If special terms balances are combined, this may increase the payment for that balance. If a balance is not paid in full before the end of the No Interest or No Interest if Paid in Full period, the balance (and any deferred interest) will be transferred to your outstanding balance.

SPECIAL INTEREST TERMS. A Sales Slip may indicate that one or more of the following special interest terms applies. Except for No Interest balances, we will use the same method to calculate interest as described above in How We Calculate Interest—Average Daily Balance Method (Including New Purchases).
• No Interest. This means there is no interest charge on the purchase balance until the end of the special terms period. You may avoid interest on the balance by paying it in full before the end of the special terms period.
• No Interest if Paid in Full. This means we calculate interest on the purchase balance. This amount is called the deferred interest charge. The deferred interest charge will not be added to the balance unless you do not pay the balance in full by the end of the special terms period. You may avoid interest on the balance by paying it in full before the end of the special terms period.

The following No Interest if Paid in Full special terms promotion may be offered to you:

No Interest if Paid in Full with monthly payments
If the purchase balance is not paid in full within the special terms period, interest will be charged to your Account from the purchase date at a rate of 28.99%. This special terms promotion may be offered for periods of 6-18 months. This special terms promotion will be identified on your statement as “NO INT IF PD IN FULL.” The Special Terms End Date will disclose the duration of the special terms.

• Special Rate. This means the APR shown on the Sales Slip will be used to figure interest on the purchase balance. A special rate of 0% APR may be advertised as a “no interest” special terms promotion.

SPECIAL PAYMENT TERMS. A Sales Slip may indicate that one or more of the following special payment terms apply:
• Payment in Full/Equal Payments. This means the payment is the amount required to pay the initial purchase balance shown on your statement in full during the special terms period. Because of rounding, the final payment could be less than other payments.
• Custom Payment Plan. This means the payment is a flat amount or a fraction or percent of the highest balance of this type on any statement closing date. The payment will not change unless, on a future statement closing date, the balance increases above the highest balance.

THE MILITARY LENDING ACT NOTICE: Federal law provides important protections to members of the Armed Forces and their dependents relating to extensions of consumer credit. In general, the costs of consumer credit to a member of the Armed Forces and his or her spouse or dependent may not exceed an annual percentage rate of 36 percent. This rate must include, as applicable to the credit transaction or account: (i) all costs associated with credit insurance premiums; fees for ancillary products sold in connection with the credit transaction; any application fee charged (other than certain application fees specified for credit transactions or accounts); and any participation fee charged (other than certain participation fees for a credit card account). Please Note: There are NO credit insurance premiums, fees for ancillary products, or application fees with this Account.

You may contact us at 1-800-338-3273 for information about the Military Annual Percentage Rate and a description of your payment obligation.

The Arbitration Agreement does not apply to you if you are covered by the Military Lending Act nor do any provisions that waive any right to legal recourse under any state or federal law to the extent required by the Military Lending Act.

IN CALIFORNIA: A married applicant may apply for a separate account. After credit approval, each applicant will have the right to use this Account to the extent of any limit set by us, and may be liable for all amounts extended under this Account to any joint applicant.

IN NEW JERSEY: Certain provisions of this Agreement are subject to applicable law. As a result, they may be void, unenforceable or inapplicable in some jurisdictions. None of these provisions, however, is void, unenforceable or inapplicable in New Jersey.

IN NEW YORK, VERMONT & MASSACHUSETTS: A consumer report may be requested in connection with this application or any update, renewal or extension of any credit granted as a result of this application. Upon your request, you will be informed whether a report was obtained, and if so, the name and address of the consumer report agency. You consent to our obtaining of such reports by signing or otherwise submitting a credit application.

In Ohio: The Ohio laws against discrimination require that all creditors make credit equally available to all creditworthy customers, and that credit reporting agencies maintain separate credit histories on each individual upon request. The Ohio Civil Rights Commission administers compliance with this law.

In Wisconsin: If you are applying either individually or jointly with someone other than your spouse, please contact us immediately at: 1-855-412-2787 and provide us with the name and address of your spouse. We are required by law to inform your spouse that you have opened an account with us. Stat.), unless in writing in the form and content required by law, which is not under Sec. 766.59, or court decree under Sec. 766.70 adversely affects the creditor unless the creditor is furnished with a copy of the document prior to the credit transaction or has actual knowledge of its adverse provisions at the time the obligation is incurred.

Your Billing Rights: Keep This Document For Future Use

This notice tells you about your rights and our responsibilities under the Fair Credit Billing Act.

What To Do If You Find A Mistake On Your Statement

If you think there is an error on your statement, write to us at:

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.
P.O. Box 522
Des Moines, IA 50306

In your letter, give us the following information:

Account information: Your name and your account number.

• Dollar amount: The dollar amount of the suspected error.
• Description of problem: If you think there is an error on your bill, describe what you believe is wrong and why you believe it is a mistake.

You must contact us:

• Within 60 days after the error appeared on your statement.

At least 3 business days before an automated payment is scheduled, if you want to stop payment on the amount you think is wrong.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

What Will Happen After We Receive Your Letter

When we receive your letter, we must do two things:

1. Within 30 days of receiving your letter, we must tell you that we received your letter. We will also tell you if we have already corrected the error.

2. Within 90 days of receiving your letter, we must either correct the error or explain to you why we believe the bill is correct.

While we investigate whether or not there has been an error, we:

• Cannot try to collect the amount in question, or report you as delinquent on that amount.

• The charge in question may remain on your statement, and we may continue to charge you interest on that amount.

• While you do not have to pay the amount in question, you are responsible for the payment of your balance.

• We can apply any unpaid amount against your credit limit.

After We Finish Our Investigation, One Of Two Things Will Happen

• If we made a mistake: You will not have to pay the amount in question or any interest or other fees related to that amount.

• If we do not believe there was a mistake: You will have to pay the amount in question, along with any interest and other fees that we are required to pay in that case.

You must notify us of any potential errors in writing. You may call us, but if you do we are not required to investigate any potential errors and you may have to pay the amount in question.

Your Rights If You Are Dissatisfied With Your Credit Card Purchases

If you are dissatisfied with the goods or services that you have purchased with your credit card, and you have tried in good faith to correct the problem with the merchant, you may have the right not to pay the remaining amount due on the purchase.

To use this right, all of the following must be true:

1. The purchase must have been made in your home state or within 100 miles of your home address, and you were not an employee of the merchant.

2. You must have used your credit card for the purchase. Purchases made with cash advances from an ATM or with a check that accesses your Credit Card Account do not qualify.

3. You must not yet have fully paid for the purchase.

If all of the criteria above are met and you are still dissatisfied with the purchase, contact us in writing at:

Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.
P.O. Box 522
Des Moines, IA 50306

While we investigate, the same rules apply to the disputed amount as discussed above. After we finish our investigation, we will tell you our decision. At that point, if we think you owe an amount and you do not pay, we may report you as delinquent.
